The Casual line of ThinkPad carrying cases offers a look that is relaxed and carefree, yet undeniably professional. The line includes a tote, messenger, backpack and a topload each made of high-quality twill that is soft-to-touch and durable enough for everyday use. These light weight cases have protective compartments to safely store your ThinkPad computer and tablet, as well as additional pockets and pen loops to organize all your travel essentials. The shoulder straps and carry handles are soft-to-touch and provide a comfortable way to carry all your important gear.
